

CANADIAN RULER GUEST OF BRYAN

Premier Robert L. Borden Spends Day in National Capital.

PRESENTED TO PRESIDENT

Visit Unofficial and Idea of Reopening Reciprocity Especially Is Disclaimed.

Closing a strenuous day in Washington after a month's rest at Virginia Hot Springs, Robert L. Borden, premier of Canada, and Mrs. Borden, were entertained by Secretary of State Bryan last night at dinner at his home, "Calumet Place."

The guests included the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, the German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff, the British Ambassador and Lady Spring-Rice, and several members of the Supreme Court, the Senate, and the Diplomatic Corps.

Premier and Mrs. Borden left Washington last night for New York. The head of the Dominion government, who has been taking a season of recuperation at the Springs, was ardent in his praise of the Virginia climate, the golf course, and the people he met.

The premier and Mrs. Borden breakfasted with Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice and the members of the embassy family. Shortly after 11 o'clock the premier, under the escort of Secretary Bryan, was presented to President Wilson.

The president expressed his regret at the extreme brevity of Mr. Borden's stay in Washington, and that circumstances had so shaped themselves as to take him away from Washington on the premier's only day here.

Mr. Borden was driven to the University Club, where a luncheon was given in his honor by Secretary of Interior Lanza, who is a Canadian by birth. The guests were the Secretary of State, Postmaster General Burren, Senator Augustus O. Bacon of Georgia, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations; Secretary of Agriculture Houston; Secretary of Commerce Rudolph; Counselor John Bassett Moore, of the State Department; Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire; and President Charles J. Bell, of the American Security and Trust Company, also native Canadian.

The guests were the Secretary of State, Postmaster General Burren, Senator Augustus O. Bacon of Georgia, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations; Secretary of Agriculture Houston; Secretary of Commerce Rudolph; Counselor John Bassett Moore, of the State Department; Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire; and President Charles J. Bell, of the American Security and Trust Company, also native Canadian.

Premier Borden took occasion to explain in the course of his stay here that his purpose in coming was exclusively of a social and highly unofficial character. He denied that there had been any discussion of the question of reciprocity between the United States and Canada.

SUSPECTS ARE ARRESTED.

Two Colored Men Tally with Description of Stockett Assassin.

Several colored men were taken in custody by the police yesterday and held on suspicion of being connected with the attack on Charles A. Stockett, who was knocked on the head with an ax at West 10th street, near the corner of 10th street, yesterday.

Police Officer Frank Howard, of the Tenth precinct, yesterday afternoon arrested Samuel Coleman, thirty-eight years old, of near Hainsville, Md. James Chandler, colored, who was Stockett's assailant when he fled from the store, is positive Coleman is the man, but five other persons who were near when the negro ran are equally certain he is not.

Lieut. William Fairway, and Privates J. T. Bradley and Albert Harden, of the Ninth precinct, drove out to College Park, Md., yesterday and got James Friedman, thirty-nine years old, of Frying Pan, Pa., who was Stockett's assailant when he fled from the store, is positive Coleman is the man, but five other persons who were near when the negro ran are equally certain he is not.

Stockett's condition still is critical, and he is not expected to live.

Formation of Recreation Board Will Be Discussed

Miss Margaret Wilson to Preside at White House
Conference that Also Will Take Up Plans
For Enlarging Swimming Pool System.

Certain plans that should bring joy to juvenile hearts in the District will be discussed in the East Room of the White House Monday night at 8 o'clock. The chairman of the committee that has called the meeting for this discussion is Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, and the plans will be for the enlargement of the District swimming pool system, for the use of the school buildings as social centers, and for a general co-ordination of the playground organizations of the District that the children of Washington may have better places in which to play.

The fact that the President's daughter will preside at the meeting is taken as an omen of success by the other members of the committee, for it is remembered that the President and his family have evinced a decided interest in the social problems of Washington, and that when they are once interested they retain their enthusiasm.

The special committee headed by Miss Wilson was named recently at a meeting of representatives of several active organizations. The committee was instructed to draft bills for the regulation of the questions involved. These bills were drafted at a recent meeting, and probably will be introduced at the meeting Monday.

These measures provide regulations for the use of the school buildings as social centers and for the creation of a board of public recreation. There also will be discussed a bill directing that the Commissioners recommend to Congress the construction of swimming pools on the playgrounds of the city and on other available property within reasonable distance of the residence sections.

The bill to create a board of public recreation provides that this body shall consist of three members, including the United States army engineer in charge of public buildings and grounds, one of the District Commissioners, and a member of the board of education.

The committee headed by Miss Wilson is made up of E. S. Martin, supervisor of playgrounds; Mrs. Henry A. Peckham, D. A. Edwards, Charles H. Ruffalo, J. E. Wilson, of the Third precinct; and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins.

PAVLOWA SCENERY RELEASED IN BOND

Step Taken Following Attachment Relieves Possibility of Action by Russian Embassy.

Scenery used by Anna Pavlova, of the Imperial Russian Ballet, and her interest in box office receipts at the Belasco Theatre, were released under bond yesterday from an attachment obtained by Ben H. Atwell, of New York.

The Russian Embassy was relieved of possible necessity for action, according to James E. Greene, attorney for Miss Pavlova, by the release of the scenery, which was forwarded to Cleveland, where Miss Pavlova is playing.

Miss Pavlova came to this country only with the "Czar's consent," and the Russian Embassy, Mr. Greene was ordered to keep the diplomats informed of developments, so that they might report to their government.

Mr. Greene furnished bond for $7,000 to cover the claim of Mr. Atwell for $2,300. Mr. Atwell claims an interest in the enterprises of Max Robinson, former manager of Miss Pavlova.

FISHER HELD IN JAIL

Maryland Real Estate Bond May Be Secured Today.

Rockville, Md., Nov. 28.—Handicapped because most of his friends willing to go on his bond live in the District, while the State demands real estate in Maryland as security for his release, William J. Fisher, slayer of William L. Aldorfer, Washington newspaper writer, had to spend another day in jail.

Tomorrow Fisher's Washington friends hope to offer to some reputable Montgomery County real estate holders good security, provided they sign the $5,000 bond necessary to obtain his release.

SCHOOL FUNDS ADVOCATED.

Education Board Representatives
Before Appropriations Committee.

A committee from the board of education of the District appeared before the Ways and Means Committee of the House yesterday afternoon to explain the different items relating to schools contained in the District appropriation bill.

The committee was composed of Henry P. Blair, president of the board; Dr. Charles H. Marshall, Mrs. Susan Root Rodden, John R. Larson, Dr. William M. Davidson, superintendent of schools, and E. L. Thurston, assistant superintendent of education in the colored schools.

CHRISTMAS TREE FUND CAMPAIGN BEGUN

Fifty-two Members of the Finance Committee Are Appointed.

PLAN MEETING TUESDAY

Effort Will Be Made to Have Marine
Band Take Part—Work of Subcommittees Progressing.

The first steps in an aggressive campaign to raise funds with which to finance the Community Christmas celebration planned for Washington were taken yesterday. The list of those who will work on the finance committee with George W. White, chairman of the finance committee, was submitted to Cuno H. Rudolph, chairman of the executive committee, and approved yesterday.

The list was sent to the printer, and the fifty-two members of the committee will be notified today of the meeting set for Tuesday afternoon, when plans for the financial campaign will be completed.

The committee will meet at 4:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Board of Trade. "I can't say exactly now what our plans will be," said Chairman White yesterday. "That will have to be settled by the committee, of course. But it is probable the work will be started off with requests for subscriptions made by mail, and later followed up by a personal canvass."

Executive Committee Meeting. It is expected that there will be a meeting of the executive committee some time Wednesday. The plans of all the subcommittees have been approved, and during the last few days that it will be necessary to call Mr. Rudolph's committee together soon, in order to have these plans approved.

"I expect that by Wednesday it will be necessary to get the executive committee together," said Mr. Rudolph yesterday. "To consider the work that has been done by the subcommittees. There will be a number of them ready to report by that time. Mr. Graham's committee is working on the problem, and the plan of decoration and the music committee is about ready for the hard part of its work—the rehearsing of the many organizations that have offered to help."

Charles A. Columbus, assistant chairman of the music committee, called at the Navy Department yesterday to make arrangements for getting the Marine Band to participate at the Christmas celebration. Officials of the department were expected to go to New York for the Army-Navy game and an appointment was made for Monday.

Finance Body Members. Those who will make up the finance committee are: Byron S. Adams, Milton E. Ailes, Lester A. Barr, Charles J. Bell, Emilie Bernier, Henry P. Blair, Daniel J. Callahan, A. G.
